

CLINTON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Like you, the Clinton County Historical Society (CCHS) wants to see Clinton County thrive. As a cultural entity, we wish to share the rich history of this county both with residents and tourists. We would like to invite your business to become a business supporter and/or corporate event sponsor this upcoming year in 2020!

Our organization has over 300 annual and lifetime members, both from near and a far, which demonstrates the community's commitment to preserving and maintaining history! We are pleased to provide a variety of options that will showcase your business and support preserving history in our community. We have streamlined our process in seeking support for operational funds and event sponsorship. Thus, we are soliciting your help and support once a year rather than multiple mailings. See the options below – contact us with any questions you might have!
