Past Year Successes... Because of You!

- Celebrated our third annual Wine in the Wilds fundraiser with over 500 attendees!
- Continued renovation to the Poorman Gallery meeting room
- Heisey House Museum received temperature control to help preserve the county's artifacts
- Over 85 nights rented in the 1941 Restored Vintage Caboose at the Castanea Train Station
- In year two of the strategic plan, which is guiding CCHS into the next four years with the following goals:

Vision and Goals For Next 4 Years
Develop a facilities master plan that addresses maintenance and use;
Once again have a paid staff, including an executive director, a curator, a maintenance person, and/or an office manager;
Foster a large and diverse membership with an increased number of trained volunteers;
Continue to provide and expand educational programs on a regular basis - at schools and on-site, during the academic year, after-school, and in the summer.

Business Memberships Available!

Do you own or work with a local business? If so, please have them get in touch with us!

Keep Up To Date With Our Website & Facebook:

Complete your membership renewal on-line and check out the upcoming events - www.clintonpahistory.org or "Like Us" on Facebook – Clinton County Historical Society

Did Someone Say... VOLUNTEER?

As a almost 100% volunteer organization, we thrive on volunteers! We need help with providing tours, cleaning, weeding, cataloguing new items, fixing things. You name it, we have a job for you!

Never too Early for... Year End Giving:

Watch out for our Giving Tuesday Campaign in November and inquire about ways you can give back to preserving Clinton County's history!
